Caden Eric Williams
August 1999 - July 2019

Caden passed away unexpectedly at his home on July 10, 2019.

He was an outstanding musician and a vocalist in his band. Self taught, Caden could probably out drum and out guitar anyone because he was so dedicated. Always looking to learn different instruments and learning and discovering new bands to listen to.

Sometimes making you listen to a band he just learned of, whether you wanted to or not.

He had the ability to make everyone laugh or smile and was definitely the life of the party. Constantly joking around, even during class time, sometimes earning himself detention for it.

Caden was the Great Debater on everything from political issues to music and Spiderman, Star Wars, Spongebob and DragonBallZ. And he would win that debate every single time.

He had a deep love and affection and appreciation for his friends and we are so thankful for each and every one of you. He had the power to console and heal without even needing words. Caden impacted so many lives, whether you knew him for 1 day or his whole life. He left his mark on you... and this world.

Caden is survived by his parents Dwayne & Traci Williams, sister Victoria Williams (Danny Smith), sister Linnia Williams (Johnny Cervantes), nieces Addison & Lena, nephews Benjamin & Jakobie, grandmothers Rhesa Brooks and Cheryl Oldridge, grandfather Michael Williams and too many to count aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather Salem Mattingley.

WE LOVE AND MISS YOU SO MUCH CADEN ERIC!!!

ROCK ON BABY BOY, ROCK ON!!!

Service arrangements are still being planned, however an announcement will be made soon soon for a date and location.

“ I didn't get to spend much time with him, but he was always fun to be around, and could be relied to crack a joke or have an interesting conversation with. I cannot imagine what the family is going through, to lose such a great person.

“ Caden lived in our neighborhood and was friends with our grandson Michael. We saw a lot of Caden when Michael was in high school. We could see that Caden was a good influence on Michael, so we were always looking for opportunities for them to pal around together. Caden played in the school band at football games, and we would take Michael to those games so he could socialize with Caden and other band members. They had crazy, noisy displays of school spirit, which we knew was a good thing for young people to do.

We really enjoyed having Caden at our house visiting Michael. They formed a garage band, 'The Integrals', and turned up the amplifiers to the maximum. We would provide the transportation for other young members of their band to get to our garage. It was inciteful to listen in on their conversations in the back seat. Once they got their guitars and drums going, there was not much conversation, but lots of musical expression.

We always found reasons to smile when Caden was around. Our deepest sympathy goes out to all who loved him.

“ I watched him when he was little. His favorite words were "Is it time to go pick up Stephanie & Alysha from school yet" this was every day all day In between his cartoons, snacks and Nintendo. We love and miss you sweet nephew!

“ Man caden. I never imagined this could happen. All I can think is my little brother is gone. I know you are happy and at peace now but it still hurts down here. I'll miss you more then you could know.. your nieces and nephews miss you and talk about you so much, we are watching spider man homecoming right now I know you are rocking out up there showing off your skills and that makes me so happy, till I see you again I'll be missing you. Love you little brother

“ Caden my baby boy you are so terribly missed already. And will be for ever. I know you are at peace now. Will forever miss hearing you playing the drums or playing your guitar. Or looking to share new music with us. Your laugh or telling little stories to us. I love you so much it hurts. And missing you is the worst. Till we're together again love Dad.
