“ Luis I hope to one day come to terms with this. I can't understand why it had to come down to this. All I can do is be there with our mom and our family and try to understand. I loved you so much Luisy boy. I just keep reminiscing on all those long talk you, Areli and I would have. The three best friends! We talked about so many different things. You were so wise Luis. I feel like you're going to come back I don't want to think you're gone. As if one day I'm going to wake up and realize this is all just a fake horrible dream. It hurts so much and it pains me to think about it. There are endless stories I could tell about you. You had so much, but it wasn't enough to surpass what you felt. I just wish I could have been there with you. I wish I could have said something to you. I love you so much Luis and I hope you are in a better place. I hope you are okay and at peace. I know you are.

“ You were such a sweet young man. Your smile was so contagious. And although it took me 3 months to get you to talk loud enough for me to hear without having to read your lips, it was worth it. I am gunna miss the way u said dude or man after everything. Your crazy dub step music that u played. Your reminders of payday and how far way it is. So much more. I truly will miss u. Wish it didn't have to be like this. Rest in peace.
