Virginia was born on January 18, 1926 to the late Frederick & Anna Marie Horst in Puyallup, Washington. She lived with her parents and brother in Puyallup before her family moved east of the mountains where they lived in several farming towns, Washtucna, Irby and Odessa, Washington. She attended high school in Odessa and graduated in 1944. She married Manford Laverne Giese on September 8, 1946 and they made their home in the Odessa area working for local ranchers. She and Manford enjoyed playing cards with their friends on Saturday nights. She and her family moved to Moses Lake in 1963 and bought their home on Rainier Road in Cascade Valley where she lived until her death. She was a homemaker caring for her family and growing a big garden each summer which led to many hours canning the produce. She enjoyed taking care of the roses during the spring and summer months. She loved to read, doing word search puzzles, working on zig saw puzzles and spent many hours crocheting or knitting. She enjoyed visits with her neighbors for a cup of coffee and a doughnut or cookies. She loved chocolates, ice cream drizzled with syrup and candied popcorn. She was a kind and generous person, with a smile for everyone and she will be missed by dearly by her family and friends.

Survivors include two daughters, Patty Melvin(Larry) of Meridian, Idaho, Nancy Leach (Charley) of Moses Lake and one son, Brian Giese (Nanette) of Moses Lake; seven grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

The family suggests that any memorials be made to the American Cancer Society.
