

Aaron Andrew Salazar

June 20, 1987 - January 25, 2025

Aaron Andrew Salazar, 37, of Moses Lake Washington went to be with the Lord on January 25th 2025. Born to Rigo Salazar on June 20th 1987 right here in Moses lake. So about our "Pumpkin Head", first and foremost he would want everyone to know his biggest accomplishment in life were his kids. He was proud to be their father. Aaron was a family man, family meant everything to him. His dad was his best friend, "his hero", and Adrian was his big bro but Aaron was really the big bro as Adrian looked up to Aaron. They had a special bond that only they understood, one minute boxing each other up, to the next chilling on the couch together watching TV. Aaron would look at his little sister Porsha and say "family is all we have sis" and he meant it. From his heartfelt messages letting you know he cared and wanted to check in with you and your family, to his just for nothing "I love you" messages.

Aaron was so full of life, he could walk in a room and light it up with that contagious smile or have you cracking up alongside him with his stupid jokes and his loud laugh. Aaron loved sports he would watch football constantly or have ESPN on all day long and be content. We all know of course he was a die-hard Seahawks fan. He was a dog lover and cared so much for his beloved pups Kirby and Boo. He was a music lover, with his favorite being Christian rap. He'd tell people "if you're going to play music, play gospel rap!" Aaron had the Christian faith and throughout his struggles he would seek out the Lord for a relationship that was between him and Christ. Aaron walked a difficult road, with many obstacles we did not see. He fought and pushed on and still gave pieces of himself to be kept and cherished in beautiful loving memories.

~We love you Scrappy. Gone too soon~

Aaron is survived by his father Rigo Salazar, his children Amya and AJ Salazar, his brother Adrian Salazar, sisters Porsha Salazar, Shyann Salazar and Rachel Jensen, nephews Kingsley and Andres Mercado, Bodhi Raymond and nieces Sophia Mercado and Logan Raymond and numerous uncles, aunts and cousins. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Rodolfo and Hilda Salazar, sister Clarice Butler, Aunt Rosaidalia Salazar, and cousins.

" I love you all"
