“ Adam, I am very thankful that I was there by your side when you left this world. I know in my heart that you knew that I was there. I am going to miss you immensely! We grew up together and saw each other through happiness and sadness, hardships and good times. You were not a nephew to me, but a brother that I loved so much. Even though we lived miles and miles apart from each other, every time we saw each other, it was as if we had not seen each other for only days. I have so many wonderful memories of me and Adam that I can recall whenever I miss him. My heart is broken with sadness because I won't see him anymore, but I know that someday I will see him again, after I leave this world, as well. I know he is watching over us like he did when he was alive. I love you my Adam.

“ I have much respect for adam. He did everything he could for everyone he knew. He loved his kids and grandkids do much at it was obvious....he treated me like a nephew and I have so many good memories of going camping with adam. I've had nothing but good times around him and the thought of him and my mom in the same room makes me laugh, smile and cry. Good times. I will really miss him and I'm sure my mom is on a bench with a cigarette and coffee waiting for him.....

“ When we first moved to our house, Adam was the first to welcome us to the neighborhood. He noticed our yard was in bad shape, so he came over and started to help with the weeds and fertilizing. He always watched over us and made us aware that he was always checking on our place making sure our yard was in tip top shape. No other neighbor has ever made us feel as welcome as Adam and Kelly. He will be missed.

You don't have to be blood to be family. I met Adam at school, long before I knew he would be my brother someday. He picked on me like no other, but no different than he did his sisters by blood. At the same time he looked out for me the same way. I love you, I miss you and life won't be the same knowing you're not there. The 7 are now 6 but only in the earthly body. I'll tuck your memories safely away in that place in my heart where all of my family go as they leave their earthly bodies behind and give their souls to the Father. God bless this amazing family
