

Aiko Omori

January 24, 1922 - July 13, 2011

Aiko Omori, 89, passed away July 13, 2011 at her home. Viewing will take place at Kayser's Chapel on July 18, 2011 from 12:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 19, 2011, at Kayser's Chapel of Memories. Arrangements are in care of Kayser's Chapel & Crematory, Moses Lake.

She was born and raised in Wapato, WA. In 1941, Aiko married Chisato Omori and 1942 they went to Hart Mountain Internment Camp in Wyoming. Upon leaving the internment camp in 1944, Chi and Aiko moved to Spokane, Washington and then later that year settled in Moses Lake where they became life-long residents. Family, friends and anything sweet meant a lot to Grandma Aiko. She enjoyed a good joke, a big hug, playing games, and watching the Mariners. She also loved to cook, entertain, garden and fish. Grandma Aiko leaves all of us with fond and humorous memories in our hearts. She is preceded in death by her husband Chi, parents: Kantaro and Yasu Osumi, four brothers: Sadami, Terry, Ned, Fred and a sister: Miya Miyahara and her dogs: Dusty, Butch, Missy and Baby. She is survived by her son: Ron and Susie Omori, her daughters: Marlene and Bob Ota, and Tami and Nathan Edwards, granddaughters: Kimberly and Charles Marth and Jynnifer Edwards and her fiancé Rick Tarver; grandson Jonathan and Kelsey Edwards; great grandson Jeremy and Christopher Marth: and 3 great- great grandchildren. The family would like to thank Aiko's faithful and dedicated caretaker and friend, Lucy Garcia for everything she has done.

“ I have many wonderful memories of the Omori Family. Growing up in Knolls Visa you could not help but know Chi and Aiko. The loss of your mother leaves a large void in your hearts but I know your memories will help you take this journey. I wish the very best to all of you. I feel as though we have lost an era of unique characters now that our parents are gone.##imported-begin##Terry Trask Skeesick##imported-end##

“ Aiko,

You and Chi gave such good counsel and advice to all of us kids...we also received tongue lashings when it was deserved...you helped so many kids through the years...and always supportive...there are so many of us who benefited from your love and understanding. I love you Aiko. tommy tyler##imported-begin##Tom Tyler##imported-end##

“ Deepest sympathy go out to Aiko's family. I am an old family friend from when Aiko and I lived in Wapato, WA. My parents and Aiko's father were very close friends. I am terribly sorry to hear of Aiko's passing. May she now rest in peace.##imported-begin##George K. Saito##imported-end##
