

Anastacio Castro Jr

March 14, 1962 - September 3, 2021

Anastacio Castro Jr

Our beloved father, grandfather, brother and friend made his entrance into heaven on September 3rd, 2021 in Moses lake, Washington. Anastacio Castro Jr was born in Edinburg, Texas to Anastacio Castro and Enriqueta Sifuentes.

Anastacio grew up and attended school in Othello, Washington. He met and married the love of his life, Anna Lynn and together they had four children. Three Boys Anthony, Zackery and Alex, and his only daughter, Candace Chantelle. Eventually they divorced and remained close friends through out the years. She was his "MA." Anastacio was a very passionate and caring man. He enjoyed being next to his family, watching football or having an all-nighter with his sons watching movies and eating popcorn. Playing and collecting guitars were his passion as he grew up for the love of music. He loved to read inspirational books; his collection was endless. In his younger years he enjoyed participating in boxing events. He also attended the HEP program at Washington State University some time in the 1979.

Anastacio is survived by his children, Anthony Castro of Moses Lake, Candace Castro of Moses Lake, Zachery Castro of Moses Lake, and Alex Castro of Moses Lake; Brothers, Freddy (Stella) Castro of Pasco, Washington, Johnny Castro of Othello, Washington; Sisters, Rosalinda Lopez, Enriqueta Castro, Cecilia Castro, all from Othello, Washington, Cindy (Grover) Kerr of Othello WA, and Mary (Joe) Mondragon of Sunnyside, Washington; His loving grandchildren Isaiah Castro of Spokane, Washington, Aleanah Lopez of Moses Lake, Eboni Alcaraz of Moses Lake, Angelo and Xander Pena of Moses Lake, Arianna, carmen, Alex and Matthew Castro of Moses Lake, Jaiden and Jaxson Castro of Moses Lake and Elijah Jace Castro of Moses Lake.

He is proceeded in death by both of his parents and brother Albert Castro.
