

Andrew Raymond Lyne

July 10, 1954 - May 24, 2025

Moses Lake, WA – Andy R. Lyne 70 died May 24, 2025, at his home from cancer. He was born on July 10, 1954, in Boston Massachusetts to Raymond and Catherine (Murtha) Lyne.

Andy graduated from Ventura High School, Class of 1973. After high school he attended 2 years of college at Ventura Community College. After college he moved to Vancouver, WA where he lived for the next 35 years, then moved to Carnation, WA for 9 nine years, and moved for the final time to Moses Lake, WA all the while building his career as a heavy equipment mechanic over the 47 years.

He met his present wife Cindy while at their square dance club and on April 20, 2025, they celebrated 31 years of marriage. Andy enjoyed fishing, hunting, and raising his labrador retrievers which he participated in AKC Hunt Tests with them. He was also a member of the Rainier Hunt Retriever Club.

Those who know Andy will remember him for being quick to give you a hard time and tease you. But also, was the first one to help out when needed and give you the shirt off his back.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brothers Edward and Charles.

Surviving in addition to his wife, Cindy Schultz, are his daughter, Jennifer Brown and her husband, Tony (Ashton) of Fairfield, Idaho, a sister Marie Montalbano of LaPlace, Louisiana, many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held in the 2nd week of August to celebrate his life.

Arrangements for the celebration of life are being made by Kayser's Chapel of Memories in Moses Lake.

In lieu of flowers a donation can be made to the cancer Institute of America in Andy's name.
