

Angelo Joseph Mandelas

March 29, 1936 - November 3, 2021

Angelo Joseph Mandelas, 85, passed away peacefully in his home on November 3rd, 2021 with his family by his side. In his words, "I've lived a good life, I love you all, but I am going to a much better place."

Angelo was born in Ellensburg WA to Gust and Mary Mandelas. He graduated from Bethel HS in Spanaway.

He moved to Othello and met Patricia Jane. They were married on April 19, 1958 and raised their 3 children in Moses Lake, on the best block a family could ask for.

Being the son of Italian and Greek immigrants, Angelo decided to create the American dream and started

Angelo's Office Machines where he repaired calculators and typewriters.

Eventually Angelo retired and became known as The Clock repair man. "With the help of The Man upstairs," as he often said, his business ventures were successful.

Angelo loved working with wood, camping and fishing. His grandchildren brought him great joy along with visits with his brothers and cousins.

Angelo is survived by a Daughter NikieAnn (William) Smith, two sons; Donald Mandelas and Fr. Michael

(Kelly) Mandelas. Grandchildren; Jenifer, Kurtis, Eric, Mathew, Laura, Sarah,

Jacob, Ashley, Ethan, Claire and
Zachary including 26 Great grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his wife Patricia, his brother Nick and sister Lemonia.

Services are November 10th, 2021 at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church ML. (masks required) Rosary and viewing at 10am. Eulogy at 10:20. Mass 10:30 am. Burial at Gaurding Angels Cemetery. Luncheon to follow.
