“ My dear friends, I am so sorry for your loss. As we talked the other day I know you know that Anjee is in better hands now. I know that doesn't make it any easier at this time but hopefully in time your pain will ease. Anjee was a brave spirit and did things the way that she always did. (Her way!) I just wish that I could take part of your pain from you. Like you said the other day, you will be with Anjee again on the other side and until then she is in good hands. Love you guys so much, please call if you need anything at all, or if you just need a shoulder to cry on. Your friends Joan and David.

“ Today my heart sank when I heard the news. The sweetest girl I knew in high school has left us. We shared much laughter in beauty school and later messaging on facebook late into the night. Anj always had a very positive, encouraging attitude towards life. She was kind beyond measure and always made me feel loved and accepted. She never was rude, never was mean and always displayed absolute grace towards everyone. My favorite thing about her was her faith in Christ. I look forward to the day I embrace this dear friend again in heaven. God bless the family who is grieving this huge loss today. To her children I say this... Your mama is safe in the arms of the Lord and to ALWAYS trust in Jesus Christ the giver of all life and salvation. She would want me to say this I know, especially now that she is in His glorious presence. Again I send my condolences and thank her dear parents for giving us this woman whom we all loved and adored and will miss terribly.
