“ *Rena and family, Axel was such a joy to get to know and work with! He will forever be in our hearts, he was one of the happiest and bravest little ones we have had the pleasure to work with. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.

“ You go from us into a new becoming we rejoice for you and wish you an easy journey into the Light.

The winds will speak to us of you the waters will mention your name snow and rain and fog, first light and last light all will remind us that you had a certain way of Being that was dear to us

*You go back to the land you came from and on beyond
We will watch for you from Time to Time*

*Your Great Auntie

“ *Axel is without a doubt a true blessing from God. His smile would brighten anyone's day. Axel is the toughest little boy I know and his fight over the last 4 years has given a whole new meaning to the word "strength." I can't thank God enough for the time he gave us with you. You are now the most precious angel watching over all of us. I love you with all my heart. RIP baby Axel
