

Betty M Harter

December 25, 1943 - November 8, 2016

Betty M. Harter, 72, a longtime Moses Lake resident passed away Tuesday, November 8, 2016 at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee, her family at her side.

Betty was born in Brevard, North Carolina on December 25, 1943, daughter of John and Bessie Cox. Before retiring, she worked at a potato processing plant as a sorter. She enjoyed crocheting and quilting and has many quilts to pass on to her family. Betty loved spending time with family.

Survivors include her daughter, Tamera Lewis and son, Robert Badger; two sisters, Janice Cox and Linda Washburn; two brothers, Ray Cox and John Cox; three grandchildren, Amanda Owen, Adam Blanco and Bryan Solomon.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ You will be missed. I loved helping you with your birds they made you so happy.rest in peace I will never forget you.

melissa - November 17, 2016 at 07:16 PM

ME

“ Melissa lit a candle in memory of Betty M Harter

melissa - November 17, 2016 at 07:11 PM

JA

“ I will always remember our phone calls (what ya doin) and laughing about odd little things. Your smile was contagious. Your funny stories always made me laugh. You are missed dearly but never be forgotten.

Janice - November 09, 2016 at 07:55 PM