“ I love, and miss you so very much Betty. You took me under your wing and included me, and my family as part of your wonderful family right after my own mother passed away (Annie B.). It was like hitting the ground running. That meant a great deal to all of us. I will miss our numerous phone conversations always.....giggling, trying hard to solve the worlds problems, and you always listened, without judgment about my family issues. Your were indeed a treasure of a 2nd mom to me. You will be so missed, but never forgotten. Please tell Justin, my Mother, Art, and my grandparents that we all love and miss them very much. You are forever in my heart. Your family will still always be a part of mine. Lovingly, Kris Evans###imported-begin###Kris (Berglund) Evans###imported-end###

“ Your parents were the best family friends we had growing up. I will miss the talks on the phone with Betty to catch up on family. When Betty lived in Quincy, across from Pioneer School I would go over after work (I worked there) and we would visit and eat cookies. What a delightful woman to be so proud of.###imported-begin###Elaine Nerpel Lillquist###imported-end###

“ I am so very thankful that you are my Grandma/Nana. I can't imagine my life without you. You have always been there for me even when you may not have completely agreed with some of my choices. Along with Mom, you and Grandpa helped shape into the woman I am today. I hope you know how much you will be missed. Give Grandpa, Grandmie, Grandpie, Aunt Dee-Da, Uncle Jerry, Annie B. and everyone else a big hug for me!! I love you very much!!###imported-begin##Amanda Anderson##imported-end##

“ Mom, I will definitely miss you, but know that there is a party going on in heaven right now! You and dad are together again. I would say he is fishing right now with Uncle Al. Aunt Clementina is making funtemon'. Jerry and Linda are playing "Spit in the ocean" with Grandma and Grandpa. Annie B is cooking up some lutefisk wearing her Minnie Pearl hat and uncle Larry is working a produce deal for angel fruit! Mom, you and Dad taught us a lot, you trained us well. Will carry on the traditions, well maybe not divinity! I am really bad at that! God bless Mom, you are home!###imported-begin##Ron Anderson##imported-end##
