“ I am feeling the same as Lynn Martin, we never knew your dad, and barely got to meet any of you. Facebook has definitely helped us all to connect and get to know each other a little better, and I hope to travel your way sometime and meet more of your family. I know Gma Curran has to be sad, but I am sure you feel such a great loss. Remember the good times, and the fact you had him for so long. Thinking of you!!!imported-beginDenise Brownimported-end
