

Bonnie Joy Buchmann

August 28, 1929 - March 6, 2013

On March 6, 2013 Bonnie Joy Buchmann was welcomed into the arms of her loving Lord and Savior. Her family surrounded her as she left us for her heavenly home.

She was born on August 28, 1929 in Anacortes, WA to Fred and Mary (Satre) Brown. She and her family moved to Mansfield where she spent her early childhood. Being an only child, her playmates were the animals she loved and cared for. She rode her horse to elementary school. One time she rode her horse to a tent revival. She moved with her family to many places until they settled in Moses Lake. She married Raymond Buchmann in July 1947. After a fruitful marriage and five children, Raymond was taken from the family in a tragic accident. Then in October 1954 she married Elmer Buchmann, Raymond's older brother. This marriage was also fruitful with five children. Last October they celebrated 58 wonderful years of love and adventures. Her family was the most important part of her life. She was generous, selfless, caring, and showed unconditional love to all; a faithful, godly woman who loved her Lord and lived her faith. Everyone who knew Bonnie loved her. She touched the lives of everyone she met. She never met a stranger. She welcomed everyone onto her home and could fix a feast fit for royalty.

Bonnie is survived by her husband Elmer, 8 children, 27 grand children and 34 great-grand children.

“ I will always remember my aunt with gratitude and love, my heart forever grateful for the kindness and love she showed me. Never once did I show up that her arms weren't open wide and her beautiful face lit by her 1000 watt smile. I'm so grateful to have known her and been touched by her spirit. Heaven shines brighter today.##imported-begin##Bobbi Buchmann Dreier##imported-end##

“ As Patrice's longtime friend, I've been blessed to have known Grandma Bonnie, and her home was always warm and welcoming as my own Grandma's was. I feel lucky to have met her and to feel like part of the family when I'm around. I'm so truly sorry for your loss.... Love, Holli

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there.
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.
Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there.
I do not sleep.
Rest In Peace Aunt Bonnie
