“ Stan, Emily, and Bri'Anna, I am terribly sorry for your loss. Brenda was truly an amazing woman. I loved working with her at WalMart. She was a great friend and I miss her terribly. I never heard her say a bad thing about anyone. She was such a blessing. Emily, you told me your mom made a difference in your son's life. That he is different because of her. She gave him her faith. I think he will grow up loving Jesus just the way she did. What a blessing! Stan I didn't know until the services that you were moving away. Good luck with that and God Bless you all! Bri'Anna, you are so much like your mom. You look so much like her. Your mannerisums are just like hers.

Take care,

In Christ love,

“ *Brenda was my best friend and even though she was sick she always wanted to know how I and my family was doing. She clung to her little bible and not once did she doubt that her Lord God was with her. She is now right up ther with Him in Heaven and she is well and whole again. Even though I miss her I am happy that she no longer is in pain.Love you always Brenda.##imported-
