“ A man we will never forget. He was always steady and repared. He was friendly and kind and most definitely a man of God. He always was in tune with what crossed his heart and mind and that meant hearing the needs of others through the promptings of the Holy Spirit, he was moved to do, to be wherever he was needed. A fellow 'brother', leader, Bishop, and friend that we will dearly miss. May you all feel blessed being children of he and your mother Verla.....what a wonderful family of such gracious and lovely parents. We want you to know that we loved him, respected him and felt extremely blessed in walking this earthly parth with him. Lovingly, Ned and Deanna Hirz

“ To all the family. heaven has just received a great man. He was my home teacher / friend for at least 20 years . I loved his stories he could tell. the most inspired words he ever said was " Faith without works is dead. He is now joined with his wife - who was a humble lady as well. My heart and love goes out To you all
