

Carald Cook

August 31, 1925 - April 29, 2009

Carald Jean Cook, 83, Kennewick resident, and former longtime Wilson Creek resident passed away Wednesday, April 29, 2009 at her daughter's home in Kennewick. Carald was born in Spokane, Washington on August 31, 1925, daughter of the late Raymond and Audrey (Davis) Kelby. She married Daniel B. Conway in 1945 in Kirkland, Washington. They resided in Issaquah until 1960 when Carald moved to Wilson Creek. She married James Cook in 1962 and they continued to make their home in Wilson Creek until 2002 when Carald moved to Kennewick to live with her daughter, Patricia. She loved crocheting and her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She is survived by 3 daughters, Patricia and Arthur Fisher, Kennewick, Molly Conway and Susan Brown, both of Spokane; 8 grandchildren, Lisa, Bryan, Amy, Laura, Daniel, Kevin and Jeannie; 8 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by both her husbands, a daughter, Judy, and a brother, Dana Kelby.