

Carl Edward Osborn

September 6, 2025

It is with deep love and sadness that we announce the passing of Carl Edward Osborn, 73, on Saturday, September 6, 2025. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather whose greatest joy in life was his family, especially his beloved grandchildren.

Known to many simply as “Coach,” he spent years on the baseball fields sharing his love of the game, mentoring young players, and building lifelong friendships. His passion for sports extended beyond the diamond—he was an enthusiastic Seattle Seahawks fan, never missing a chance to cheer them on.

Beyond sports, Carl found happiness in the simple things: weekends spent camping, afternoons watching games, and time gathered with loved ones. His grandchildren were the center of his world, and nothing made him prouder than being “Grandpa.”

He will be remembered for his generous heart, his unwavering support, and the joy he brought to everyone fortunate enough to know him. His legacy lives on in the lessons he taught, the teams he built, and the family he cherished.

Carl is survived by his loving wife, Tammi Osborn, his children, Shauna Barison, Kamille O'Connor, and Josh Bennett, his grandchildren, Connor and Emily Barison, Grayson and Quinn O'Connor, and Jayden Bennett, and a wide circle of extended family and friends.

He will be deeply missed but forever remembered—with love, laughter, and the cheer of a game well played.

Tribute Wall

“ Regina Kellams lit a candle in memory of Carl Osborn ”

---

Regina Kellams - September 13, 2025 at 07:56 PM