

Cathree Elizabeth Gori

April 14, 1948 - August 9, 2021

Cathree Elizabeth Gori, went to be with our Lord in Heaven on August 9th, 2021, at her home in Moses Lake, Washington. She passed on surrounded by her family and her loving partner, Jim Fisher.

Cathree was born April 14th, 1948, in Everett, Washington to Raymond and Melba (Cowan) Heinzen. She met Jerome Gori in New London, Connecticut in 1968 and married August 4th, 1972. They moved to Columbia Falls, Montana and then to Mukilteo, Washington in 1986 where they raised their children, Missalee (Gori) Ortiz and Jason Gori.

Cathree was a woman of many occupations, working in the service industry and earning an accounting degree while raising her children and working two jobs. She then built her own successful housekeeping business of many years until her retirement.

Cathree was an extremely talented seamstress, interior decorator, gardener, and musician. Her deep devotion and service to the Church and her Faith throughout her life was an inspiration to all who knew her. She was also very active in supportive groups providing unfaltering friendship, guidance, and hope.

Cathree is survived by her 4 brothers Raymond, Jack, Clay, and David Heinzen, her two children Missalee and Jason, son-in-law Vince Ortiz, daughter-in-law, Jhing (Alvarez) Gori, and much-loved grandchildren EJ Alvarez, Andrew Ortiz, and Jazmyne Gori.

There will be a vigil service held in Seattle, Washington on August 27th at 11:00 am at Our Lady of the Lake Church. Her interment will be at Holyrood Catholic Cemetery Shoreline, WA. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Case Western Reserve University, designated to Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease research. Case Western Reserve University · GiveCampus
