“ Hi grandma i wanted to ask you for a huge favor you have know idea how much we all miss you it still hits us when we remember you are not here. The other day i wanted to call you because i needed help with how to make food. And when i went to go and reach the phone i just remembered your not there. It hurts grandma and i know i am just your granddaughter but we all feel like we lost you in some different way and my mom is taking it hard i just wanted to ask if you can just help her with this if you can give her a sign or come into her dreams and tell her that you are alright and happy i think that maybe she can move on and live life the way she wants to. Right now she is not doing well and i am very worried with her i hate it when she goes off on her episodes and just wants to run. Help her out grandma and i am trying very hard to get a place so that i can babysit by brothers when my mom wants time for her self. I am going to do what i have to to help my mom. My eyes opened when i saw you go and i will do everything to help my mom i love you grandma and please do this favor for me because to tell you the truth i cant see my mom do this anymore please let her know i love you grandma i will see you soon in paradise love Lorenza.##imported-begin##Lorenza B.
