“ Charles was one of a kind, second to none I was glad to know this fellow Veteran of military service related to the Korean War, and our military presence there. His offspring are rated to be the very best in their lives in our society, because of his never-ending love for his family, and his never ending efforts to live in accordance with our Heavenly Father and the desires of our Prophet. He will be sorely missed but we know that in that Eternal Home he will continue to be a very outstanding resident. Don Thomason
