“ My wife and I would like to extend our deepest sympathies to the family of Charlotte Phillips. We're so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is not something we ever get used to. You are sure to miss someone who was so important to so many.

But please be assured that the God of all comfort cares for you, as can be seen from Psalms 34:18: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."

Especially at a time like this, the Bible provides us with the finest source of comfort. When my mother passed away, after a long battle with cancer, a scripture that greatly helped me with my loss is Isaiah 25:8: "He (God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." What a beautiful scripture! God promises a time when there will be no more pain, suffering, or death.

My wife and I hope these scriptures will be a source of comfort to you now and in the days ahead.

Again, we offer our deepest sympathies to the family of Charlotte Phillips.

Sincerely,

Vaughan and Denise Amende##imported-begin##Vaughan and Denise Amende##imported-end##

“ I never met Char but I heard so much about her from my son, Garrett, who met her and her husband, Ralph when they attended Nascar. I am a Breast Cancer and Colon Cancer Survivor and we always feel a connection for each other whether we have formally met or not. I was touched by Char's story and added her to my list of the 50+ afghans that I have knit for friends who have also been struck by Cancer. There was love and support in every stitch. Char was very loved by her husband and kids and that was the greatest gift they could have given her.##imported-begin##Curry Eckelhoff##imported-end##
