

Cheryl Ann Carpenter

May 24, 1959 - May 12, 2019

Cheryl Ann Carpenter 5-24-1959 - 5-12-2019

A pretty girl seemed so fragile yet with a spirit all her own. Cheryl took God's hand and He led her home following a difficult illness. She leaves a loving son Jamielee Scott Carpenter (Moses Lake). A caring friend Harmony Draper, parents Clyde and Carolyn Carpenter ML; three sisters Collene Gonzales (Noel Jr.), Cathy Lane (Robert), Cara Johnson (Kert). Two brothers "Joe" Clyde Joel Carpenter (Cindy) ; Curt Carpenter (Jennifer), Loving nieces and nephews, extended family and friends.

Her education - Garden Heights elementary, ML. One year in Ephrata, and the majority in Vancouver, Washington the School for the Deaf. High School graduation in 1979. One year of college.

Cheryl was employed by Community Schools in the CETA program, taught sign language for Adult Community Schools: Employed at Walmart until disabled.

Cheryl's unstoppable spirit and belief in God saw her through many troubled times and illnesses.

She was a pretty girl - looked so fragile yet with a spirit all her own. She dances though her world was silent. She dances to the rhythm she feels upon the floor!! Keep dancing Cheryl, we love you-
