

Christine Grace Hall

July 11, 1970 - December 15, 2018

Born in Bellevue, WA, Christine Grace Hall passed away 12/15/18. Daughter of Wayne and Fran, mother of Sage and Lindsay and sister to Robin.

Someone wrote about her, "she made beautiful foot prints on this earth, not a truer statement. She loved nature and reveled in being out in it. Christine loved and cared for all animals especially her cats.

Fly fishing, hiking and prospecting for unique and precious stones were her passions. With some formal training and an eye for art she was very adept at capturing natures wonders on film.

The family request, in lieu of flowers, any remembrances be made to "Days of Camelot" at Pioneer Veterinary Clinic or The Columbia Basin Cancer Foundation in Moses Lake.

“ It's hard losing someone who has touched my life in such a special way. I learned a lot from Chris that will always have with me though. Slowing down to appreciate the little wonders that are so easily overlooked, and caring for all creatures regardless of size, or strength. She was quick to find humor in just about anything, which always made hanging out with her fun and allowed me to see that things didn't need to be so serious. There were also a lot of far out stories, that early on I had trouble believing, but then invariably they would turn out to be true, so I stopped doubting and came to realize she really did experience a lot of extraordinary things. She was an extraordinary person and I am so happy for the time we had with her.

“ I have so many fond memories growing up and taking family trips to Mosses Lake. There are so many it's hard to pick. Chris, Robin, Mark and I looking for bugs, floating down the irrigation ditches or riding in the back of the pick up truck in the middle of a field in a lightning storm with dad and Wayne leading the charge. These were not extravagant vacations but they sure were fun and I loved it all! Christine loved nature and was always so inquisitive. She had a good heart and she will be missed. ❤️

“ Alan and I remember long talks at the dinner table after eating. She had a way of looking deep into your eyes as she shared her passion for rocks, nature, and her cats. Chris will always be remembered and securely nestled in our hearts. Chris has comfortably settled down in her new home in the heavenlies where she has no pain sharing eternity with her Heavenly Father. We are missing your presence and look forward to our reunion one day.

“ So very sorry to learn of Christine's passing. My deep condolences to her family and friends. When I had been sick for a long time, she helped me enormously around our house. Her good spirit and quiet determination was an immense inspiration to my healing. She had a great love and knowledge of plants also, and saved a few of our plants from my benign neglect . I will think of her each time I look at my fiddle leaf palm, which is flourishing under her kind advice. May her sweet memories bring you solace during this time.

“ My heart is heavy as I heard about Chris, we spent hours as children playing barbies together, catching polywogs, exploring around the neighborhood. I used to love to see Chris at Safeway, we would always have a good conversation and she always had a smile on her face. I haven't seen Chris in a few years but my heart has been heavy for her and her family for her fight with cancer. I am so sorry she has left this life but I know she will not have to struggle or fight anymore. Heavenly Father has called her home. ❤️❤️❤️❤️ Much love and prayers to Fran, Wayne, Robin and kids.

“ Grace. I didn't realize Christine's middle name is Grace. Grace is truly fitting for her. Christine was truly full of grace and I am so very thankful for the opportunity to get to know her. She was an incredible woman with tremendous integrity. She was patient. She had a kind spirit. And, always there to listen without prejudice. Christine will be greatly missed by both Mel and I. Her smile. Her great views. So much. So sorry. Embraces to her family.

Dear Wayne, Fran and Robin. I enjoyed Christine and loved her she was such a sweetheart and I enjoyed her hobbies and knowledge about so many things. She was such a lovely person and so willing to help with anything. I'm so sorry for your loss. I thought of her frequently and wondered how she was doing. I was afraid she might be resting so I did not call. She was a blessing to me. Janet Bjork
