

Christopher D. Williams

July 5, 1983 - February 19, 2014

Christopher D. Williams, 30, a resident of Ephrata, passed away February 19, 2014 in Ephrata. He was born in Barstow, California, son of Douglas W. and Karla D. (Johnson) Williams. He was married to Megan L. Greenwalt five years ago and they made their home in Ephrata. Survivors include his wife, Megan Williams; mother, Karla Williams; father and step-mother, Douglas and Jeannie Williams; two sons, Elijah and Zxander; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Bert and Terry Greenwalt; brothers, Kelly (Sandra) Waters and Chase Williams; sister, Cassie Williams.

Tribute Wall

JA

“ I knew Christopher before he was ever born. Such a cute little baby, and turned into a cute little boy with that dark curly curly curly hair that I loved. I have so many pictures over the years of him growing up. Wonderful memories of Christopher over the years. Rest in peace sweet Christopher, you will be missed by all. You are now in the hands of our Lord, and God bless you and keep you!

-----
Janis.MacKenzie - March 07, 2014 at 09:55 PM

 Teresa Wilson

“ Teresa Wilson sent a virtual gift in memory of Christopher D. Williams

-----
Teresa Wilson - March 02, 2014 at 12:22 PM

 Teresa Wilson

“ Teresa Wilson lit a candle in memory of Christopher D. Williams

-----
Teresa Wilson - March 02, 2014 at 12:21 PM

LS

“ Chris was always one of the nice guys. Soft spoken, and sensitive. Even tho to look at him you would have never guessed it. :) My husband, Garrett met him years ago when they worked together at Katana. They became friends through work. Then when I moved over here and met his wife through my work she and I became friends. A couple years later they both played big roles in our wedding as Best Man and Maid of Honor. We miss Chris, and will continue to miss him. Our deepest sympathies go out to all who knew and loved him.

---

Lauren Schenck - March 02, 2014 at 09:52 AM