

Clyde Kingrey

April 4, 1929 - December 10, 2020

Clyde Kingrey passed away on December 10, 2020 at the age of 91 of natural causes. He was living at Brookdale Senior Living Center. He is survived by his brother (Ike), son and daughter-in-law (Jerry and Cheryl), grandchildren (Travis, Ginger and Candice) and great-grandchildren (Russell, Mikaela and Jaxson).

He was born on April 4, 1929 in Granger, WA to parents Mary and Chester Kingrey. He grew up on a farm in the Yakima valley. He had 6 siblings (Merele, Mary-Lou, Donny, Sam, Richard and Ike).

Clyde married the love of his life (Ruby Schonewell) on June 25th, 1946 at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Granger, WA. They were married for 67 years until his wife died in 2013. They had four children together (Jean, Linda, Russell and Jerry).

Clyde made a career in the irrigation industry. They first moved to Moses Lake, WA in 1975 where Clyde worked at Lad Irrigation. Clyde and his brother Sam started Kingrey Irrigation in the late 1970's. Clyde left the business and later finished his career in Anaconda, MT. After retiring, his wife and him moved to Blackfoot, ID to be closer to other family before settling back in the Moses Lake area.

Clyde enjoyed the great outdoors. He loves to hunt, fish and play golf. He also loved watching sports on TV.

Tribute Wall

“ Janet Gonzales lit a candle in memory of Clyde Kingrey ”

Janet gonzales - January 30, 2021 at 08:15 PM