

Colin David Clark

April 11, 1966 - April 6, 2026

Colin David Clark (59) died unexpectedly on April 6th, 2026. He was a fiercely loyal friend, always ready to lend a hand or just moral support. Always ready with a joke, a piece of trivia or music fact, he was a valuable member for any trivia team and brought joy and humor to any gathering.

Colin was born April 11, 1966, in Lincoln, Nebraska, the second son of Robert and Carolyn (Voyles) Clark. A life-long resident of Lincoln, Colin graduated from Lincoln Northeast High School in 1984. He spent many hours participating in Marching Band and Wrestling and often reminisced of the good times and many friendships found in those activities. He had a lifelong love of music and was particularly talented in the saxophone and harmonica. Following high school, he joined the staff at the Cornhusker Hotel prior to starting work with StarTran. He was a dedicated employee receiving multiple awards and recognition for his service to customers and the community. He truly cherished the many lasting friendships he formed with his co-workers. While working, he earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

He met his wife, Jennifer (McKeeman) in Lincoln and they were married on March 15, 2009. Later they were blessed with 2 children, Sean and Abigail. In 2025, he took a job with the Grant County Transit Authority and the family relocated to Moses Lake, Washington.

He leaves behind a loving family, his wife, Jennifer, two children, Sean and Abigail, his parents Bob & Carolyn Clark, brothers Jay (Brenda), Kevin (Annica), and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by brother Kyle Clark, and grandparents Ray & Eleanor Clark and Carroll & Lorraine Voyles.

A memorial service will be held at Saint Paul United Methodist, Lincoln Nebraska on May 16, 2026 at 10:30am.

Donations may be made in his name to Lincoln Northeast High School Music Department via LNE Music Department Fundraiser | FoundationGIVE.