“ I met Cindy many years ago when I heard that she was looking for someone to do some data entry work for her, and my daughter Britni was looking for work as a High School student. Britni worked for her for quite awhile. When Britni found a different job, I stepped in and worked for Cindy part time. I will always remember her laugh and her confidence in me when I took on becoming a health coach. Cindy was always full of life and love. She loved Christmas!! I remember decorating for Christmas. I thought I was done and the next day I came to work and found more decorations that she just couldn't help buying. So, I put those decorations up too. She loved her plants and flowers and instilled in me a love of plants as well. I have several plants that Cindy gave me. Every time I look at those plants, I will always remember sweet Cindy. I am so grateful for Cindy. She did so much for me and for my family. She took me in and I felt like apart of her family. She loved so much and she lived her life to the fullest.

“ I actually have many wonderful memories with Cindy. But one that sticks out is when Cindy and I were in Mary Kay together and we were at a Mary Kay convention in Dallas Texas in the middle of the summer. To preface this Cindy was always cold and we were staying in a hotel room together and this was right after some big casino in Las Vegas had burned down. I think we were on the 8th floor. Cindy smells something burning and I did too. We went to hurry out of our room afraid that the hotel was on fire and Cindy suddenly said I turned the heater on.... The smell came from the heater not running for a long while. I mean who turns on a heater in Dallas in the middle of summer?. .. Cindy, that's who.

“ Where does one begin when you are blessed with so many wonderful memories. Her smile is what I believe I will never forget. It isn't just imprinted on my mind but also on my heart. The countless movies we watched, the buttery layers on the popcorn. But here is a tender memory I would love to share.

I was pregnant with Aidan and we knew at that time that he had trisomy13 and his life on earth would be short. I went to Goldendale to visit with Mom, something I did as much as I could. It was late in the evening and we were having mom and daughter talk time. I was sharing to her about my fears, having him, not knowing how long it would be and how long I would be able to have him. She began to cry and said. "If I could I would have him so you don't have to endure this pain". Then I cried and said "just knowing that you want to take it away makes it all more bearable for me." She did not like to see anyone in pain. She was willing to feel it all if it meant others would be okay.

I love you always and forever Mom, today is Aidan's 9th birthday and I just know you are throwing him the best birthday party heaven has even seen.

I have one special memory of Cindy. Darrin and Angie thought it would be nice to have both Moms together at the beach with them. They rented a beautiful house overlooking the ocean which happened to be exactly a year ago this week, which makes me feel as though it was meant to be looking back now.

A second blessing was that Keith was able to join us.

We had a wonderful time together enjoying the beautiful sunsets, the shopping and good food at the coast.

I will remember Cindy's kindness and always wanting everyone to be happy!

I'm sure Aidan was waiting for Grandma this week to join him in Heaven.

Loved Cindy. Known her since I was a little girl. She was always positive and uplifting. My sister Diane and Cindy went to high school together. I loved her parents and I will always remember her.

I met Cindy and Lonnie almost 14 years ago. They welcomed me with open arms and were always very kind. They were just fun folks with huge hearts. They radiated love for one another and she was a special friend to my mentor Joanne. On occasion, I would hang out with them and I felt honored to be among the best. Anyhow, she was very loved. Both of her sons, Bryan and Troy have been helpful and a true blessing in my life, thus she leaves her legacy. She will be missed and my prayers continue to be present as the family navigates this chapter. Lonnie, special prayers for you during the transitional time. Prayers and love, Karen Joy
