“ Dear Renee, Stephanie, Scotty, and Brian,
There are so many great memories of being neighbors to you back in the '70's. Dale and I would pack all six of the kids up, head down to the river with his Toyota and trailer and me in the pick up to load up with sand to rototill in while we were prepping for our yards. That meant shovelling the sand in first and then shoveling it out when we got home. You kids were really good, well, most of the time. Your mom taught me how to bake pies, I still use your recipe Charlotte. Your folks took Harry and I to our very first concert, Charlie Pride. The sledding parties, the swing set, so many memories. I know you will miss your Dad, he truly was a kind and gentle man with smiling eyes and a terrific sense of humor. Much love to all of you to get through the tough times ahead. Hank
