

Dale Ware

March 1, 1925 - April 22, 2009

Dale Ware, 84 passed away at his home on April 22, 2009, after a short illness.

He was born in Wheeler, Texas, on March 1, 1925. Dale graduated from Wheatland, NM and served with the United States Army in WW II in Japan. He married Theresa Mathews in Dec. 1978 and they resided outside of George, where they ranched the remainder of his life. In 2006, Dale received the 'Trail Rider Award' from the Cattle Producers of Washington, and also, 'Grant County Cattleman of the Year', for Cloverdale Ranch. He was a retired electrician of 45 years, who worked on the Columbia River dams, including the night shift electrical supervisor during the installation of the third power plant at Coulee Dam.

He is survived by his wife, Theresa, of Cloverdale Ranch, George, daughters, Angie (Mike) Reilly, of Wenatchee, Karen (Jim) Friske of Columbia Falls, Montana, Susan Gagne-Lynch (Tim) of Coulee Dam, sons, Joel (Rene') Ware of Yakima, and Don Ware of Yakima, stepchildren, John B. Mathews of Warden and Helen Jean (Jerry) Rowe of Edmonds, 16 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, 1 great-great grandchild, 4 sisters and 2 brothers.

Dale was preceded in death by his son, Larry Ware, his son-in-law, Michael ("Mic") Gagne, his parents, C.T. and Blanche Ware, and 2 sisters, Echo

Mackechnie and Georgia Corbin.

Dale will be remembered for his love of life, people and his sense of humor.

He will be truly missed.

Graveside services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, April 25, 2009 at Pioneer Memorial Gardens, Moses Lake, WA.
