

Danyll Smith

June 22, 1988 - May 24, 2015

Danyll R. Smith, 26, a resident of Quincy, and formerly of Lake Stevens, Washington passed away Sunday, May 24, 2015 in Quincy.

Danyll was born on June 22, 1988 to Steven and Jozette Smith in Marysville, Washington. He worked as a salesman in auto/boat/motorcycle sales. He was currently residing in Quincy, Washington.

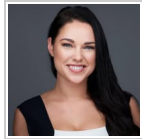

Survivors include his parents, Steven and Jozette Smith, Lake Stevens, Washington.

Tribute Wall

“ Rest In Peace

U.T. - August 21, 2015 at 11:49 AM

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Jozette Anderson - May 26, 2015 at 07:31 PM

“ 1 file added to the album New Album Name

Jozette Anderson - May 26, 2015 at 07:31 PM

“ What is Pi? 3.14159265 My Pie, was Nick Riddell, Spencer Pemberton & Dan Smith. These 3 together, seemed to believe they could solve and create & build anything. They believed In the Theory Of Everything!

Dan's skills as a Craftsman, a Salesman, and a very knowledgeable person. Helped many people. I was lucky to be one of them.

Dan's very good looks, turned many heads. One very handsome young man. He got that from his beautiful parents. That loved him very much. As well as a brother Dustnn, and a sister Rochelle.

Dan didn't live in Quincy as stated in his obituary, he lived in Bothell Washington. With his best friend Spencer Pemberton.

Dan lived with me, and Nick & Spencer & Javonte when he was a young adult. I watched them all grow up. I remember many crazy idea's they had. Sometimes I thought their ideas were so good, I wanted in on them.

Dan put up the crown molding in my house. He put up all the flat screens in my other house in Arizona. If I mentioned I needed or wanted something, he would stop whatever he was doing and do simply anything for me. Thank you Dan.

They had a fasciation with BMW's, (I think they got that from me,lol). They each owned multiple BMW's. They sold them too. When they were young, I would take a picture of the speedometer. Also make them leave me a sign blank check, or a Benjamin before I would hand over the keys. Then off they would go. yep, they were the cool kids ;)

With each of these 3, every time I spoke or speak to them we tell each other we love each other. Love,,,,,love is what makes these boys special. Very sensitive, extremely sensitive. I worried about them daily. As I lost my only daughter, Georgia.

Their safety as a parent/friend is and was a concern for me.

Although Spencer is just 2 days older than Dan. Spencer, acted as a Big Brother. He loved Dan very much.

Spencer, describes this weekend to me as " EPIC FUN". They had bought Scallop's, Tiger shrimp, and fillets. They fed everyone. Dan cooked for Stanger's. He text me Sunday around noon, told me everything was fine. Not to worry. That he had no cell service. Seven hours later, I get a call to call a number. I was praying.... Spencer was screaming and crying. I describe it as the death cry. He said, Mom Dan is dead! I hear screaming, he drops the phone. Kassie picks the phone up, I asked her if their sure? She repeated, what I said, sure??? Yes. She said, Spencer needs you to call Steve now.

I couldn't see through my tears. I needed help to even text Steve to call me.

I had about 4 minutes to think how to tell him, their beautiful son had passed.

Depression took Dan's life on May 24th. Spencer, and Nick and I are deep in grief.

I thank God for letting us have Dan in our lives. But, now I ask every one who read this to keep The Smith family, and Nick and Spencer and all their friends in your prayers.

Katie Pemberton - May 26, 2015 at 07:07 PM

“ I will never forget you or the impact you have made on my life Danyll. I am going to miss you, but, I know you are finally at peace. I wish we would have had more time on this earth together, but, I do take comfort, in the fact, that the last time we spoke, I was able to tell you how much you mean to me and that I do and always will love you as my brother. I'm going to do a lot of self reflection in your absence and I will live my life in your memory. Thank you for your time, your friendship and your love.

-One of your many best friends, Matthew H Chivers.

Matthew Chivers - May 26, 2015 at 11:12 AM