Darcy was born on November 29, 1959, in Ellensburg, Washington, to J. Dwaine and Anita McIntosh. Darcy was born with Down's Syndrome and was not expected to live past 20 years of age. Despite being born without the ball of both femurs, after being healed in answer to prayer as a baby, she learned to walk and went on to live a very active and full life, to the amazement of her doctors, and to the glory of God.

Darcy's family moved to Moses Lake in 1971 where she attended school, graduating from Moses Lake High School in 1979, one of the first special needs students to be awarded a modified diploma. As a student Darcy loved participating in Special Olympics, bowling and softball. After graduation she lived in several different adult family homes in Shelton, Othello, and Moses Lake. Darcy held several jobs over her adult life; she loved working and interacting with the public. Her favorites were Dairy Queen in Shelton and Subway in Othello. Darcy enjoyed traveling with friends and family; she had visited Disneyland, Hawaii, and been on a cruise. She was a die-hard Seattle Mariners and WSU Cougars fan. Darcy's greatest loves were Jesus and her family. She loved to go to church and read her Bible. She loved playing games and celebrating any occasion with friends and family.

Darcy lived life to its fullest and was blessed by many wonderful friends over her lifetime. Four years ago she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's which slowing took its toll. For the past 11 months Darcy was lovingly cared for by the staff of Ambitions Ray House. She is survived by her mother, Anita McIntosh, sisters Cheryl Harris and Lori (Lyle) VanWinkle. She was a special aunt and great-aunt to several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father, Dwaine McIntosh, and grandparents. Our lives were all impacted for good by having shared it with Darcy. She was truly a blessing to all who knew her and will be greatly missed.

“ The first time I met Darcy, Gerry (Darcy's cousin) and I were just recently engaged. Gerry introduced me to all his family members as his fiance and Darcy was about the ninth person "in line" and when Gerry introduced me she exclaimed "Fiance!!! Are you getting married?" She was the only one who caught that. I loved her from that moment on. Sorry Aunt Anita but I'm so thankful that she is whole and that we have the promise of Heaven.

“ I had the privilege of being Darcy's job coach for ten years in Othello. She was a wonderful, hard working person who loved life and people. Her co-workers at Bingers loved her and always made sure she had a WSU cake for her birthday. She liked to tell Husky fans that the Cougars were better, she liked doing word searches, reading her bible and bowling. Darcy never let me forget that I didn't know how to keep score bowling and she had to teach me so I could do it myself when we played in Ritzville. We shared a love for animals and she would let me know how I should be caring for mine and would always tell me she knows the best veterinarian. She will be greatly missed. She had a great sense of humor and everyone who ever met her when working still asks about her.

We love you Darcy, you will be greatly missed!, Mandy Jensen

“ Anita,

I'm so saddened to hear about Darcy's passing. As you know, a few years back (1978, I believe), I had the pleasure of going to Disneyland with Darcy and several other friends of ours. It was a fabulous trip and I think about it often.

You and Dwaine were always so wonderful and such great support. Darcy was a wonderful woman.

Blessings to you,
