“ To the Carvalho family, we are so sorry for the loss of Delores. What a beautiful, kind, sweet lady! She was so nice and I just loved her! We got to know each other, to see each other at church and with our kids in catechism. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers. 🙏 Rest in peace, Delores. Love Luis, Trina, Carlos and Louie Alfaro

“ I have too many to list. However, one memory that comes to mind is when your girls softball team won the championship. After the win we all piled into our Chevy van, with the song “Whip it” playing full blast with the windows down. I must’ve been around 5 or 6 at the time. And it still feels like yesterday. What a fun time! You were so good to all that crossed your path. One thing is for certain, I’m so thankful for you, Mom. I love you and hope you’re flying high with the birds. God bless you!
