“ We are so very sorry to hear of Diane's passing. I enjoyed working with Diane at Samaritan many years ago. She was such a professional and a no-nonsense kind of person, and had a great sense of humor. I learned a lot from her. Please be comforted at this time by the concern of friends. “ Uncle Richard, Todd and Tracy,
Whenever I think of Aunt Diane the first memories that pop into my mind are her being one of the first family members to be there when my boys were born. Of course that was her job there at the hospital but it always meant a lot because she was family.
I'm sorry for your loss but am relieved that she won't suffer anymore. There's much better things in store for her now.
Thinking of you at this time...
