I'll miss swapping plants, bulbs and seeds from our flower beds and sharing gardening successes and laughing about our gardening disasters. I only need to walk around my yard throughout the year to see the beautiful flowers shared that bring back memories of the special people who have enriched my life. One of the first to bloom in the spring is a beautiful clump of bulbs Dona gave me that have bright star shaped yellow flowers that bloom alongside with purple hyacinths and pink silver beacon near my front entry Rest in peace.
