Donald Fay Liggett

January 13, 1931 – October 27, 2025

Donald Fay Liggett, 94, of Moses Lake, Washington, passed away on October 27, 2025. He was born on January 13, 1931, in Livingston, Montana.

After serving in the armed forces, Don moved to Washington and established a livestock transport company. He married Elizabeth Friedbauer in 1967, and began a life-long career farming in the Hiawatha Valley. They raised four children together. Don worked on his farm and raised cattle until the age of 90. In his spare time, Don found great joy in serving as a leader for the 89ers 4-H Club and flying his airplanes.

Don was preceded in death by his wife, Elizabeth (2016); his son, David (1996); and his sister, Lois (2024).

He is survived by his daughter, Tracy and her husband Rob; son Brian and his wife Freya; son Bruce; his grandchildren, John Liggett, Heather Liggett, and Cameron Cochenour; and his sister, Mary.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, October 31, 2025, at Pioneer Memorial Gardens in Moses Lake. Arrangements are under the care of Kayser's Chapel of Memories.

“ I did not have the privilege of knowing Don long, but it was an honor to get to know him and spend time with him. He will not be forgotten as he made those days unforgettable and his verbal sparring skills are second to none, with his quick, witty, and funny comebacks.
