

Donata Trevino Cuevas

February 6, 1935 - December 22, 2018

Donata T. Cuevas lifelong resident of Pearsall, Texas entered eternal rest on December 22, 2018 in Moses Lake, Washington while living a short time with one of her daughters.

Donata better known as Hinia was born on February 06, 1935. Donata was preceded in death by her father Melchor R. Trevino and her mother Francisca S. Gutierrez, son Samuel Segundo Sr. and daughter Elida S. Robles and three brothers. Hinia is survived by Antonio C. Cuevas and daughters Sonia Martinez and husband Pete, Lupe Rendon of Pearsall, Lisa Medrano and husband Jose of Pasadena, Tx. Edna Segundo of Ft Worth, Tx. Rosalinda Uvalle and husband Marcelino of Moses Lake Wa. Rodolfo Robles of Eagle Pass, Tx. And two sisters Martha and Lupe of Batesville, Tx. along with extended Moses Lake family.

Hinia's life was blessed with 15 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren and 5 great great great grandchildren.

Most knew Hinia as caring and giving and loved to cook and care for many. She had a green thumb and whatever she sowed grew in abundance. She loved playing Bingo, Loteria and cards.

Hinia was a resilient woman who never gave up the will to live.

She will forever live in our Hearts.

*We shared so much on our conversations across the miles, that separated us. But during our talks we made each other happy. Blessing each other's homes and lives. Rest In Peace my Tia 🙏 My heart hurts knowing we can't have phone conversations any more. But I know we will be together again.
In time ,I Love You.*
