“ Donna was my Sunday School teacher when she explained the gospel to me. I credit her for the one God used to open my eyes to the truth. She will be a permanent part of my testimony. Her and her family were a postive influence in my childhood years while in Warden from 1963 to 1977.##imported-begin##Jeff and Paula Amonett##imported-end##

“ Dear Friends,

My condolences to you and your family in the loss of your dear mother / grandmother. The news of her passing came quite shokingly to me when Pastor Steve called me as just the day before I had wished her Happy Birthday on her facebook. I highly respected your mother and father and it was a tremedous honor for my wife and me to be their pastors for a period of their lives, especially during John's battle with cancer. I loved them both dearly and wish you all the comfort of the Lord's love and the peace of His promise of evelasting life to those who put their trust in Him.

Sincerely,

Mark & Michelle Geer##imported-begin##Mark Geer##imported-end##

“ John and Donna Saetre were loyal and dedicated residents of Warden during our time in town from 1972 to 1980. Donna was a strong supporter of her children and was deeply involved in their school lives. She was very organized and could be counted on for help in various town activities. When her grandchildren attended Lind schools, Steve enjoyed visiting with her at the basketball games. We remember the Saetre family for their commitment to their community and for their devotion to their family. Donna will be missed by all who knew her.##imported-begin##Steve and Danna Dal Porto##imported-end##
