“ There are no words that can express the deepest feelings that are evoked by the passing of a loved one. How ever our thoughts and prayers are with one and all, and especially with Valerie. We know the Savior is the only one that can truly heal, and sooth the pain of loss.

Till you meet again, may His blessings be with you.

“ So sorry to hear of Dwight's passing. We went all twelve years of school together. I remember him as such a kind and sometimes very funny person. Val, if you need anything or want to visit give me a call. I'm sure glad that I got to see you both while Dwight was here in Moses Lake. My thoughts and prayers are with you and Dwight's family.##imported-begin##peggy montgomery##imported-end##
