“ I send my prayers and thoughts to all of you. I am so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of hanging around the Simmons home back in the 60's, and, of course, there is a special place in my heart for Edna's chocolate chip cookies. A few times she bartered a dozen cookies in exchange for me doing the paper route - and I was getting the good end of the deal. Cookies are still my downfall and I'm here to tell you that your mom's cookies remain my favorite!

Kathy - I had a strong urge right after Christmas to get in touch with you, so I called and spoke to your mom. Her voice took me back in time - it was great to talk to her. I sent you a card but it was returned - the address she gave me was an old one. I kept meaning to call her again but am sorry to say that I never followed through.

I have faith that your mother has arrived home in heaven and is at peace.

Please let me know if I can help with anything. Yes I'm STILL in Moses Lake and would love to see you.

“ Dan,
I have no idea what one can say to a friend at a time like this? I know Al would know what to say to you, he was intuitive that way, but of course he is up there waiting for your mom and can't help me know what to do for his dear friend. If there is anything Dan, anything at all that I can do here please let me know. If you need copies of the paper sent to you let me know that too, I work at the Herald.
