“ Ed was a kind and generous person. He Offered his friendship to everyone. I remember him as someone that cared So much that it's very hard to put in words Good enough how much love that came from him.that he shared with everyone. I Consider it a great blessing to have known him in my lifetime. TLV

“ Ed was a good father to his children. He taught them the love of the beauty around us in flowers. He loved his orchids, fuchsias, and did like plants that would offer food - berries, etc. He will be missed by his family! Lisa
