“ Elizabeth "Liz" Visdal was born June 7, 1941 at Swedish Hospital in Seattle, WA and died on May 25th 2014 from pneumonia in Moses Lake WA. Liz attended some of her early years at Star of the Seattle School in Bremerton. The family then moved back to Seattle where she attended Holy Names Academy. After graduation she attended Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Spokane, WA. Her nursing career was spent at Public Health Service Hospital, Providence Hospital, Everett, WA and Swedish Medical Center, Seattle. Liz enjoyed reading, quilting, cultural events and traveling. Liz also loved to listen to Mariner games. She happily attended the 1975 Mariners play-off game against the Yankees. She is survived by her brother, Bernard "Jim" Visdal (Linda), Graham, WA. her sisters Karen York (John) Seattle, WA, and Mary Conrow (Dennis) Moses Lake, WA and eight nieces/nephews. At her request there will be no services.

It was Liz's wish for her remains to be put into Puget Sound. Sometime in the next few weeks her sister, Mary, or Judy will make arrangements with the Washington State Ferry System. According to the WSF website it usually happens mid day and not a weekend or holiday. If you would like to be notified was to when let me know.
