April 21, 2014 - May 15, 2014

"Your first breath took mine away"

Emersyn passed away on May 15th, 2014 after battling severe gastroschisis with pulmonary hypoplasia, pulmonary hypertension, and sepsis. She was born on April 21st, 2014 with a severe case of Gastroschisis and began the next stage of her journey with 2 surgeries to try and place her organs back inside of her. She inspirationally fought for life every day. In her short 24 day life she touched many hearts, showed more strength than anyone possibly could, and taught everyone the true meaning of unconditional love and hope. She is survived by her daddy Cory Thomas, her mommy Carissa Shoemaker, her three big sisters Jaelyn, Khloe, and Liyah, and many nanas, papas, grandmas, grandpas, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. May you rest peacefully little Emmy. We love you. Fly high sweet girl.

"Though she be but little, she is fierce"

Services will be a Celebration of life BBQ at Cascade Park on Monday, May 19th at 5:00pm. Everyone who loved her is invited.

“ Miss Emmy u touch so many people's lives that u never met. You are such an inspiration to all that are fighting a battle for life. Watch over your parents and siblings sweet girl. Tho you are in a better place pain free, they lost a precious jewel that is irreplaceable.

“ Although only here for such a short while, sweet baby Emersyn, you touched so many! I feel so fortunate & blessed to have met you & shared a few brief moments with you, your Mommy & Daddy...as I watched your Momma caress your sweet little face, & whisper to her sweet "punkin butt" it was clear to me in those moments you were loved so very much & that if you tired & could not fight this battle any longer, that an Angel in the book of life had written down your birth, & whispered on that day that God called you home you were much too beautiful for this Earth! Sweet Emersyn, you will be missed, but will never be forgotten...rest peacefully sweet baby girl, Cherie Willis, Newman Lake, WA.
