

Ernest J. Eytinge, M.D.

August 1, 1916 - March 20, 2011

Ernest J. Eytinge, M.D., 94, husband of Isabelle Eytinge, Moses Lake resident and formerly of Everett, Washington passed away Sunday, March 20, 2011 at Columbia Crest Care & Rehab surrounded by his loving family. Please sign the online guestbook or leave a note for the family at www.kayserschapel.com Arrangements are in care of Kayser's Chapel & Crematory.

Dr. Eytinge was born in San Francisco, California to Ernest J. O. and Marian Brooks Eytinge on August 1, 1916. He graduated from the New Mexico Military Academy in 1936 and did his undergraduate studies at Stanford University. His medical training was at Washington Medical School in St. Louis, Missouri and his residency training was in New York City and Lahey Clinic in Boston. His specialty was Internal Medicine. He was certified and recertified by the Board of Internal Medicine.

As an Army doctor in World War II in the European Theatre, he fought in France and helped liberate prisoners from the Jewish Internment Camp at Dachau, Germany.

Returning from the War, he practiced for over 40 years on Colby Avenue in Everett, Washington. After he retired he was a ship's Doctor on many cruise lines, visiting every continent.

His interests include boating, flying his plane, scuba diving, skiing, reading and traveling. For over fifty years Dr. Eyttinge was a familiar face at the Everett YMCA enjoying the camaraderie and exercise.

Ernest married Marion Hedges in 1944. They had 3 children, Jonathan (wife Mary); Margo; and Barbara (husband Richard).

His grandchildren are Jonathan, Bret, Alexis, Lian, and Bin.

He is survived by Isabelle, his wife of 40 years. His stepchildren are Mary Margaret Endicott, Jennie Larson (husband Larry); and James Cory (wife Jackie). Grandchildren are, Todd Lewis, Katina Eme, Ryan, Kene and Jamie Larson.

Ernest and Isabelle moved to 905 S Pioneer Way #214, Moses Lake, WA 98837 in August 2010.

Cremation has taken place and private services will be held at Tahoma Veteran's Memorial Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Providence Hospital Foundation of Everett or your favorite charity.

Tribute Wall

“ To a great teacher of taking risks, enjoying life's adventures & a love of all gadgets.

Dad & Grandpa

We will look for you in the stars- Binnie, Lexie, Lian &

Margo##imported-begin##Margo Eytinge##imported-end##

March 23, 2011 at 12:17 AM

“ I will never forget Dr. Eytinge. He was my Dr. when I first moved to Everett and then when I got married he diagnosed my husband with diabetes. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Linda Parker##imported-end##

March 22, 2011 at 01:20 PM