“ Hey Tino, old friend... I'll always cherish our chats back on the back dock at Americold. You always made it fun to come back there so you could catch me up on what was new and how things were going. You sure got them railcars done well, buddy. See you again soon....

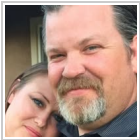

Condolences to Mary and the family... we lost a great one on 9/24.

“ Sending our deepest sympathy to the family of Tino, I got antiquated with Tino in I believe it was 1968, when he worked at Americold Logistics, the plant hadn't been open long and I came up from Nampa, Id. as the plant needed help high stacking as the people had not done this before. I came up and worked for two weeks to help with stacking and got introduced to Tino. We worked together several times and enjoyed the friendship. A few years later they opened the Connell, wa plant and I ended up coming to Connell and ended up seeing Tino several times in the years of service I had with Americold when Tino was at the Moses Lake plant. Anyway I am sorry for the loss, but I know he has had some trouble for some time. Our deepest Condolences to the family. I know Tino is out of his pain and in a better place. Prayers to all.

“ Babe Ruth baseball coaches Bob West and Jerry Thaut want the Garza family to know how much we appreciate his undaunting support and the sharing with us of his young men. From day to day practices and games during the summers, all the way to the 1978 Babe Ruth World Series in Newark, Ohio, to the 1981 State High School Championship, Tino was always there for what ever kind of support was needed. Every program involving our young people needs more fathers like Tino lending a hand. In every way, for all the years we knew him, Tino was an absolute class act. Moses Lake will miss him. Rest in Peace, Tino. Bob and Jerry
