“ Frank, you won your race! Wanda, I can just see Frank snapping pictures with reckless abandon in Heaven. Knowing Frank for just the short time that I did, he taught great lessons on unconditional love, love of life, laughing at self and the "serious" matters in life and again, unconditional love and patience with human kind. Frank was a true free spirit and a lover of life. Thank you all for sharing him with me!###imported-begin##Karen Grothe###imported-end##

“ Wanda, Russ, Dee, Cami and family. We are truly sorry to hear about Frank's passing. My first memories of Frank are from years ago in his typing class. He was a character, telling jokes and crowing like a chicken, it certainly made the class interesting. Then later on having him become my sister's father in law. What a wonderful addition to our extended family. He was a unique person and a loving gentle soul. We send our deepest sympathy. Please know we will be keeping you in our prayers and hope you will find comfort in knowing you are thought of during this difficult time. Peace to you. “ To Wanda, Cami, and all the family, I express my deepest condolences. Frank was a very special man, and a good friend for many years. I regret that I cannot attend the services for him since I am "babysitting" in Seattle. Certainly all of you are in my prayers. May our Lord comfort all of you!

“ Frank was my drivers ed teacher in 1966. Claudia Redwine and I wanted to drive in the evening and Frank went to bat for us so we could. At the time, we were the only girls who got to drive at night. He was such a good sport. We thought we were pretty cool "cruising the gut". He even let us pull into Tastee Freeze and get a vanilla coke. I remember his saying "girls, we could get into trouble for this". But we did it anyway. He was a good sport. Rest In Peace Frank.##imported-begin##Cathy Sortor Glaesemann##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. Harrison's family and friends. It is kinda fun to think back to my earliest typing days when I took Mr. Harrison's class at MoLaHi in 1968. I think I worked pretty dang hard and just managed to pass with a C-. A few years ago as a substitute teacher I was asked to come in for a week to teach Keyboarding. I put together several boxes of music paraphernalia and walked into what ended up being a Typing (Keyboarding) class. We ALL GOT A GREAT LAUGH, ESPECIALLY ME because I was always so horrible trying to communicate with the finger taps. Well I am now up to 42 with two mistakes (40) per minute. Enough for a solid "C".. right , Mr. Harrison.

.. More seriously I express my condolences to all of the family. I have been close to Frank's sister, Lois Thornley, for almost 50 years. Well.. thanks to your "Mr. Harrison" for dedicating his time and effort to teach me something useful and fun. I realize now how much real patience it took to have me as a student. My best to all of you during these hard times when we have to say.. "Farewell, till we me again." My faith and conviction assures me that we surely shall be with our loved ones after our own short sojourn.... Sincerely,
