“ I sure miss you Fred the memories spent together camping, watching kids at their sports events, etc was always a wonderful time. I am so glad that the Lord found it to be the right time to finally be together. Our lives without you and Pam is left empty but our memories that were made will always be cherished. Thank you both for everything you done for us. I will do my best in taking care of your daughter and your grandchildren until we meet again. I love you both and miss you very much.
