“ I loved when we lived a couple apartments down when I was a kid. I couldn't wait to go outside and hang with you and the boys. We never locked our door so you would walk in whenever. That's how close of a family we were at the time. How about the time we were playing basketball and you threw the ball a little too hard and it knocked the air out of me. You felt so bad, I couldn't help but forgive you right then and there. You had a heart of gold primo and I will keep the memories of our childhood locked away. Love you lots.
