“ I knew Gary from his time at the website hannity.com. He was such a sweet and kind man that saw the good in everyone (except for maybe liberals LOL). Our friendship grew out of our political interest and leanings and that I lived in Spokane for many years. I will miss him dearly!

“ Gone too soon for sure. What a wonderful boy you were Gary. Always would stop and say Hi and talk a bit in the grocery store or of course Walmart. You know how much my boys miss you!!! And their wives. You made such an impact on all who knew you. Loved you dear boy and will never forget you. Lee and Charlene, you and Gary made our first few years in ML (a culture shock after living on west side!) more bearable with your kindness and humor. Love to all and you are in my prayers. Only consolation is that we will see him again! Yes Lord! You and Wade with Jesus! I bet you are having more fun than we are!

“ My daughter graduates this weekend so I won't be able to attend Gary's celebration of life. I would love to be there. Gentle, kind, thoughtful, friend are some of the few words to describe Gary. Any chance encounter with him left me with wishing to have more time to visit. I'm so sorry for his family having to deal with his loss and sorry for us not able talk sports, Ag or politics. Thanks Gary for defining gentle man. Bless your heart!

“ My heart breaks for his family. Gary was such a great person and the greatest friend. I will miss our talks, his humor and zeal for life. He will truly be missed. The comfort I have is Gary loved Jesus so I know I will see him again. I pray for comfort for all; the kind only Jesus can give. So as Gary would say.... See ya later and love ya buddy..... “ Gary and I met at Genie Industries several years ago. We became fast friends. We shared many laughs which wasn't hard to do with Gary. When he left Genie, we would keep in touch via Facebook and an occasional run in which lead to some more laughs over some Coors. As always we shared laughs, mostly at old cartoons (gruesome isn't it?!) and music (rock me tonight) you had to be there to understand these examples. A lot of times we would find that we were the only ones laughing while others rolled their eyes at our silliness. I'll cherish those times, Gary and I'll miss my friend. Hey since your up there, don't make it Chocolate Rain please. Love you buddy wish we had more together

Gary and I randomly decided we needed to take a road trip to Reno..... On the way there we were driving on this long flat straight road with beautiful mountains..... I said, Gary.... stop the truck - you need to pull over. Gary says no, it's only 45 mins and we will be to our destination for the day. I said, Gary stop the truck, it's my road trip too!!! He laughs and says why do I need to stop the truck?.... I said, Gary there are Cantaloupe everywhere (me so excited I am about to jump out of the window) Gary say's..... "Cantaloupe Kas?????" Yes Gary Cantaloupe!!.... stop the truck!! Gary pulls over. Gary, you have any binoculars??? (as I dig frantically among his truck) He is laughing.....Gary I am serious, do you see them??? He say's yeah Kas..... I see the Antelope! That's what I said Gary!!!..... and we laughed and laughed & laughed! I'll miss you forever my friend... until we meet again:)
